

The Creative Center's All Participant Art Exhibition!

Open Call: ART WORK Wanted! For art show opening Friday July 20th and hanging through September 2018!

CALL FOR ENTRIES:

Participants are invited to DELIVER unframed 2D original artwork to The Creative Center. We will accept up to three pieces in any medium including literary art, to be hung for our summer show. Submissions will only be accepted with a written statement from the artist that includes:

- 1) The artists name
- 2) The title of the work
- 3) A short statement about what the Creative Center brings to your life.
- 4) What the piece means to you.

If your work is not accompanied by the written statement, we will not hang it.

We intend to have the opening for the show on Friday, July 20th from 6-9pm with a suggested donation of $10. We will also be accepting submissions for a reading portion which will be held upstairs in the classroom adjacent to the gallery from 7-8pm. We are looking for written works that can be read out loud in under five minutes which showcase the literary talent of our participants.

If literary submissions are not labelled with the authors' name, we will not consider them.

Again, the art work or written work must be submitted for review. Please submit work that you are excited to share and has meaning. We intend to return all works in the condition in which they were submitted.

DEADLINE: All work must be received by June 29th. We will notify you if your work has been hung or if we would like to include it in our reading no later than Friday July 6th.

All proceeds for the opening on July 20th will go directly to The Creative Center's Workshop program.
